Surveyors Report

The Surveyor's Report describes the method used to determine the boundary and it should include, as appropriate:

- basis and method of determining the location of the bank
- details of any differences between the observed location of the present bank and previous definition/s.
- Provide considered qualified reasons for the difference (e.g. erosion/accretion/error in prior survey, flood or reclamation)
- position of all improvements relative to boundary as shown on plan
- information and/or statutory declarations from eyewitnesses (e.g. long-term residents)
- professional advice or evidence (e.g. land/estuary studies, geotechnical evidence, soil/bore hole samples, etc.)
- description of the land and land use. (e.g. whether natural, developed or affected by man)
- photographs—current and historical (terrestrial and aerial, if appropriate, with boundary superimposed)
- a survey geometry file (dwg or dxf) and aerial images with present and previous survey overlays.
